Group of four large-format Comic related cinema posters, comprising Judge Dredd (1995), Tank Girl (1995), and two examples for Watchmen (2009) — including the dated teaser-style advance poster and a separate "Coming Soon" character ensemble design. All are standard theatrical posters printed on paper stock for cinema display, featuring bold, high-impact artwork characteristic of 1990s and 2000s genre cinema, with prominent imagery of the titular characters and strong graphic typography. All posters show clear evidence of cinema use, handling, rolling and storage, including surface creasing, rippling, fold lines, scuffing and general edge wear. The Watchmen dated poster displays a noticeable edge tear, with further minor edge splits, abrasions and softened corners present across the group. Additional light scratching and handling marks are visible, particularly along margins and fold points. Despite these issues, colours remain vibrant and the imagery is visually striking overall. Condition consistent with original cinema-used material; overall offered in Fair to Good condition. These posters are believed to be original cinema-issued promotional items; however, no provenance or supporting documentation is available and authenticity cannot be conclusively guaranteed. Each measures approx. 40" x 27" to 39.75" x 30". See photo

Estimate: £30-50

Lot No. 214

Group of six large-format Comic related cinema posters, comprising Iron Man 2 (2010) — two examples, including the close-up character teaser and the full cast ensemble design; Logan (2017), featuring the silhouetted Wolverine advance artwork; and three character-panel posters from X-Men 2 (2003), depicting paired character line-ups including Storm, Cyclops, Mystique and Wolverine, together with Nightcrawler, Rogue, Iceman and Lady Deathstrike. All are standard theatrical posters printed on paper stock for cinema display, with bold photographic imagery and studio branding typical of early-2000s to 2010s superhero releases. All posters exhibit clear signs of cinema use, handling, rolling and storage, including surface creasing, rippling, fold lines, light scuffing and general edge and corner wear. The Iron Man 2 close-up example shows notable surface creasing and handling marks, while the ensemble sheet displays broader rippling across darker areas. The Logan poster shows lighter wear overall with minor edge softening. The X-Men 2 character posters display typical rolled wear, with creasing and light edge rubbing visible, particularly along margins, one also has small tear near Storm portrait edge. Colours and imagery remain strong and visually impactful across the group. Condition consistent with original cinema-used material; overall offered in Fair to Good condition. These posters are believed to be original cinema-issued promotional items; however, no provenance or supporting documentation is available and authenticity cannot be conclusively guaranteed. Each measuring 30" x 20", 30" x 39.75", and 40" x 27". See photo

Estimate: £40-60

Lot No. 215

Group of eight large-format cinema posters, comprising Resident Evil: Extinction (2007) — two examples, including the full-colour Milla Jovovich character artwork and the silhouetted sunset teaser design; Underworld (2003), starring Kate Beckinsale, featuring the moonlit rooftop artwork; Underworld: Rise of the Lycans (2009), with battle montage imagery; Underworld: Evolution (2006), starring Kate Beckinsale and Scott Speedman, featuring the snowy battlefield design with dual-pistol Selene artwork; The Bone Collector (1999), starring Denzel Washington and Angelina Jolie; Gothika (2003), starring Halle Berry; and Bram Stoker's Dracula (1992), directed by Francis Ford Coppola, featuring the gothic stone-texture design with red title lettering and central sculptural motif. All are standard theatrical posters printed on paper stock for cinema display, with dramatic photographic and graphic designs typical of late-1990s to late-2000s genre releases. All posters show clear evidence of cinema use, handling, rolling and storage, including surface creasing, rippling, fold lines and general edge and corner wear including some small tears and paper loss in places (most notably the Dracula poster). Colours and imagery remain strong and visually effective throughout. Condition consistent with original cinema-used material; overall offered in Fair to Good condition. These posters are believed to be original cinema-issued promotional items; however, no provenance or supporting documentation is available and authenticity cannot be conclusively guaranteed. Each measuring 26.75" x 39.5" to 40" x 30". See photo

Estimate: £60-80

Lot No. 216

Group of science-fiction and fantasy cinema promotional posters, comprising Serenity (2005), directed by Joss Whedon, with the central sword-wielding character and ensemble cast set against an explosion backdrop; Red Planet (2000), starring Val Kilmer, Carrie-Anne Moss and Tom Sizemore, with the striking red planetary imagery and astronaut motif; The Day the Earth Stood Still (2008), starring Keanu Reeves, advertising the remake with large-scale city and celestial imagery; Titan A.E. (2000), animated science-fiction feature with dynamic space action artwork and bold typography; Star Trek: First Contact (1996), featuring the Borg cube and Earth imagery with "Resistance is Futile" slogan; and Final Fantasy: The Spirits Within (2001), with the distinctive multi-character facial montage forming the title text. All are large-format paper posters produced for cinema exhibition and promotional display. The posters display typical signs of original cinema use and storage, including rolling creases, surface rippling, edge and corner wear, occasional scuffing and minor handling marks. Some examples show more noticeable creasing and softening to edges, particularly at corners, though colours remain strong and imagery clear throughout. Condition overall is Fair to Good, consistent with cinema-used promotional material. These posters are believed to be original cinema-issued examples; however, no provenance or certification is available and authenticity cannot be conclusively guaranteed. Each measuring approx. 39.75" x 30". See photo

Estimate: £30-50
